FREE-SILVER is good enough for th ther fellow: but when the money is coming his way JOHN R. McLEAN of The Cincinnati Enquirer demands his pay in gold.

THE last refuge of the Free-traders in their attempt to excuse themselves from the reduction in the wages of the coal miners is in the statement that coal importations were no greater under Wilson Law than under the Mc Kinley Law. They do not seem to understand that it is the price fixed by foreign importations rather than the quantity Imported which, in this case fixed prices of the home productions The fact that Nova Scotia coal, mined at the water's edge and loaded imme diately npon vessels from the mlnes could be brought into the New Engiand ports, with a Tariff 35 cents less per ton than prior to the Wilson Law, was of sufficient to turn the tide of West Virginia coal away from New England and into the West, thus Inducing rate wars and forcing down the wages of miners in nearly the same amonnt that the reduction in Tariff reduced the prices of coal in the East ern markets.

In Washington City the fact ha come to light that JOHN R. McLEAN has a great fondness for gold, although in his Cincinnati Enquirer he has much to say for Free-silver.
